Wanless - Kesler

George Algar Wanless & Miss Minnie Anna Kesler of Cass were married at the Methodist parsonage, Wednesday September 13, 1922 by Rev F. B. Wyand.

Pocahontas Times 9/14/1922

Harry Wanless, of Cass is 91 years old today! He was born on Back Mountain, near Cass, in sight of the house where he now resides, on June 18, 1896. He is the son of the late Charles Wanless and Hannah Cassell Wanless.

In 1922 he married a school teacher from Hillsboro, Mary Hill. Harry and Mary Wanless never had children of their own but raised seven foster children. There was no payment for foster children care in those days.

Mr. Wanless spent most of his life farming. He contributes his long life and good health to the outdoors and hard work; as he said, "Farming for a living is hard work and long hours." He did work on public works and for the Cass sawmill for three years before retirement. He was a helper building camp cars, and he also served in World War I.

Mr. Wanless hears very well without the aid of a hearing aid, and ^{until} just a year ago could read well without glasses. He says he does have trouble reading now - but still reads some without glasses.

Four years ago he was in an automobile accident, from which, he says, he has never fully recovered. Before that he drove anywhere he wanted to go. Since the accident he limits his driving to the four miles from his home on Back Mountain down to Cass and back home. He makes good use of the Senior Citizens bus to take him elsewhere. He drives himself to Cass every Sunday to attend church at the Cass United Methodist Church. In the summer months he often drives to Cass to sit with the fellows in front of the Country Store to watch the trains go out, and see the many tourists who visit Cass every year.

Mr. Wanless says he couldn't get along without his next door neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Cassell, and the Senior Citizen bus.

His wife of fifty-six years died nine years ago, leaving him alone. Mr. Wanless ended our interview with these words, "It's really tough living alone."

We hope to talk with him again on his 100th birthday

In memory

Mrs. Alice Wooddell died at her home near Nottingham, a few moments before one o'clock Monday night, November 19, 1923.

She was a daughter of Samuel Cassell who preceded her to the grave forty years ago.

Mrs. Wooddell was 67 years, 6 months and 22 days old. Forty five years ago she was married to John F. Wooddell. For years she had been in failing health, but would never complain nor give up. About three months ago her suffering was so great she gave up to go to a hospital. While there she was given an operation, but she had gone too far for any good to be done, and she was brought home. She was at home eight weeks until her death. Her sufferings were borne with great patience. She said she cared for nothing on earth; all that she cared for was for her Savior to take her home.

Mrs. Wooddell is survived by her aged husband, five sisters, Mrs. Wanless of Wanless; Mrs. Swink, of Cass, Mrs. Tallman of Stony Bottom, Mrs. Baster and Mrs. Auldridge of Onoto; and one brother, Mr. Cassell of Cass.

The funeral service was conducted at her home by her pastor from the words, "God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes", after which the remains were taken to the Wanless graveyard, where her father and mother and one sister are laid to rest.

The Pocahontas Times 3/34/1932

James L. Butler has come into the family Bible of his grandfather, the late Squire William Butler, of Stony Creek. The book was published in 1847 by the American Bible Society, instituted in the year 1816. On a fly leaf is the notation "Bought of William T. Price, May the 3rd, 1850. William Butler was the eldest son of Col. John Butler, Sheriff, representative and general all around prominent citizen in the formative time of Pocahontas County. His mother was Mary Moore Butler, sister of Joseph Moore. William was their eldest son, being born November 23, 1808. His mother and three of her sons, Joseph, John and George moved to Braxton County. The daughters are Mrs. John Moore of Marlinton, Mrs. Henry Duncan of Stony Creek and Mrs. William Duncan, of Edray. William married Elizabeth Barlow on June 6, 1833. She was born May 5, 1814, daughter of John Barlow and Martha Waddell Barlow. William Butler died September 17, 1881 and his wife less than two months later, November 13, 1881.

The names of the children put down in the old book are Martha Jane May 27, 1834; Miriam, October 8, 1836; John, September 7, 1840; George, February 26, 1843; Mary Ann, December 29, 1846; Andrew, April 14, 1848; William Henry, August 17, 1849; Margaret Elizabeth, January 23, 1853; Samuel C., July 28, 1855; all are dead, the last to pass away being Mary Ann Butler home in Marlinton last Wednesday, March 16, 1932. Margaret Elizabeth, Andrew, Miriam and John died while yet young.

Martha became the wife of Henry Poage and her son Henry Poage of Millpoint. Her second husband was Sheriff Sam Day and their son, Amos Day, of Red Lick.

George Baxter was a man prominent in the affairs of Buchanan County, serving for years as County Surveyor. His first wife was Sarah Poage. Their children, J. Willis Baxter, Mrs. H. A. Slear, Adam O. Baxter, the late J. H. Patterson and Mrs. Georgina Hayes. His 2nd wife was Margaret Cassell, who survives. Their children are Mrs. Elmer Duncan, Frank Baxter, Mrs. E. C. Smith, Mrs. Fred Pritchard and Mrs. Harry Knox.

Mary Ann Baxter became the wife of John R. Moore. She died March 16, 1932. Their children are Mrs. Calvin May, Mrs. John May, Adam & Alva E. Moore.

William H. Baxter married Martha Gay. Their children are Mrs. W. L. King, Mrs. E. J. Shennahan and G. Preston Baxter.

Samuel C. Baxter married Mary McClure. Their children are Mrs. Lloyd Van Keenan, Charles, J. L. Elmer, Levi, and A. Neal. Baxter and Mrs. W. A. Grogg.

Colonel John Baxter had a large and select library for his day and his son William inherited an early age he began teaching and became an efficient and popular instructor. He served for many years as a Magistrate and a member of the County Court. He was a ready writer, and did a great deal of work for his neighbors in framing business papers, as agreements, conveyances, deeds and wills. He exerted a great influence for good frequently.

adjusting matters between neighbors that otherwise might have led to tedious court proceedings and person animosities.

George Bafter - Son of William and Elizabeth Barlow Bafter, his father born in Bath County, Virginia in 1808 and his mother in Pocahontas County in 1814.

William Bafter came to Pocahontas County when young and made the home of his wedded life here, and George Bafter was born in Edra district February 26, 1843. William Bafter died in September 1881 and his widow followed him to the land of rest in the succeeding month. George Bafter on January 6, 1866

June 8, 1911 Pocatontos Times

The sad intelligence was received Saturday evening by Mrs. J. R. Moore, that her foster son, Ellis Baxter had been found dead in his bed at Ft. Wayne, Indiana. The deceased was an engineer on the Pennsylvania line, running out of Chicago to Ft. Wayne, and was 30 years of age. He was a son of the late George Baxter, but his mother dying soon after his birth he was raised by his aunt. Upon receiving word of his death, Adam Moore went to Ft. Wayne, Indiana and he writes that Mr. Baxter had been sick since May 17th and that his death was due to a blood clot on the heart. He was buried by the Brotherhood of Railway Engineers at Ft. Wayne.

(He also had Bright's disease)

B of L F & E Conducts Funeral of Brother

The funeral of William Ellis Baxter, the young Pennsylvania engineer who was found dead in an bed at his rooming house at 1720 South Calhoun St. last Saturday, was held yesterday (June 7) afternoon, the Rev. Church officiating. Hundreds of friends of the deceased were in attendance at the last sad obsequies.

Mr. Baxter came to Fort Wayne from his former home, Marlinton, Pocahontas County, W. Va. and accepted employment as fireman with the Pennsylvania Co. December 1, 1902. Being a good, upright, sober and industrious young man, he proved his worth to the company and was promoted to engineer last November 26th. By close attention to his work, and being of a sober, saving disposition, Mr. Baxter had accumulate quite a nice bank account besides his insurance in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Fireman and Enginemen which is a great credit to his memory. The interment occurred in the B of L F and E private lot in Lindenwood Cemetery. The beautiful ritualistic work of the brotherhood was witnessed by over 150 members of the lodge besides the large concourse of sorrowing friends who gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of one who will be missed in our city.

Frank Cassell Bakter and Miss Bessie Kate Moore were united in marriage at the parsonage at Edray, Wednesday evening, November 15th. Rev. Ira F. Rickett officiating. Mr. Bakter is the son of the late George Bakter and is a young man of excellent character; by profession a civil engineer. The bride is the pretty daughter of S. B. Moore, our worthy County assessor. She was becomingly dressed in a suit of blue, beautifully made, with hat to match. May they have a long happy and useful life.

R.

Mrs Margaret Jane Cassell Bafter was born on March 29, 1853; died on October 30, 1940, aged 87 years and 7 months. On Thursday afternoon the funeral service was held from her late home at Onoto, in the presence of a large congregation of friends and relatives, by Rev. O. N. Miles, assisted by Rev. J. C. Wool, Rev. J. J. Phau, Rev. A. B. Williford and Rev. R. H. Skaggs. Interment in the family plot in the Edray Cemetery. Twenty four years ago to the day her son, Harry Bafter was buried.

Mrs. Bafter was a daughter of the late Samuel and Eliza Valentine Tomlinson Cassell, of Back Allegheny. Of her father's family, one survives, Mrs Mary Ann Tallman of Stony Bottom.

On February 16, 1882 she was married to George Bafter who died on April 5, 1908. To this union were born the following children:

Mrs Elmer Duncan, Mrs F. C. Pritchard
Frank C. Bafter, Mrs. E. C. Smith

Mrs Charles Knox and George Harry Bafter.

Her stepchildren are; Mrs Birdie Slean, Adam O. Bafter and Mrs Georgie Harper; also Ellis Bafter, Mrs James Patterson and J. W. Bafter now deceased.

Early in life she dedicated her heart and life to the Lord Jesus Christ accepting Him as her Saviour, and lived a true, consistent Christian life to the end.

Her passing marks the close of a long and constructive life, adorned with charity, sympathy and deep understanding. Her most pretentious and lasting monument is her perpetual contribution to these Christian graces to her family, her Church, her community and to all with whom she came in contact. Hers was the priceless ability to weave something of her sterling character into the very fabric of those around her. She led her flock not knowing they were being led.

"Her Children arise up and call her blessed."

"Let her own works praise her name in the gates"

away

I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead — she is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand.

She has wandered into an unknown land.
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there.
And you — O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return, —
Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
mild and gentle, as she was brave, —
When the sweetest love of her life she gave
To simple things; — where the violets grew Blue as the eyes they were likened to,
The touches of her hand have strayed as reverently as her lips have prayed;
Think of her still as the same I say:
She is not dead — she is just away!

Ernest Harper, a prosperous young farmer and Miss Georgia Baxter, one of Pocahontas County's best school teachers were married last week. Congratulations to both and a hearty welcome to the bride to our community.

At one o'clock Wednesday June 2, 1909 near Edray, a nicely arranged marriage was celebrated, when Ernest Fletcher Harper and Miss Georgia Ann Baxter were joined in Holy Matrimony, Rev. Wm T. Price, D. D. officiating. Mr. Harper is a much respected citizen and progressive farmer of the Levels district near academy. The bride is daughter of George Baxter, Esq, a much esteemed young lady and widely known as a popular teacher of public schools. Miss Myrtle Baxter, sister of the bride was maid of honor, escorted by Mr. Reuben Auldridge as the groom's best man. The wedding march was nicely rendered by ~~Miss~~ Bessie Moore. Soon after the ceremony the parties set out for the home of the groom where a reception was in waiting. An elegant and profuse wedding dinner was served and much enjoyed. All that a happy marriage implies in extended circles of friends and acquaintances.

Both Mr & Mrs Duncan were School Teachers. His people were Union ~~was~~, Hers were Confederates, He was a Republican, She was a Democrat.

2/16/1911 Pocahontas Times a memorial tribute

No living person seems to remember a time when deeply pathetic and much lamented family in our county this the closing months of 1910.

Among those passing on leaving a name embalmed with all that the hearts of her children and numerous acquaintances can give "their praise and their tears" was Mrs. Mary Frances, relict of the late Col. Stephen Cornelius Pritchard of Dunmore, Pocahontas County, W. Va., the subject of this memorial tribute.

Mrs. Pritchard was born September 20, 1837 in Greenbrier County, W. Va. Her parents the late Alexander and Mrs. Mary Susan McAllister were at that time residents of that county. Afterward they moved to Alleghany County and located near Covington where they reared their family of 11 children, whose births occurred in the following order; Mary Frances, James Renick, John A., Bettie A., Phoebe A., Susan J., Andrew K., Louisa C., Frank W., Riley M. and Samuel H. of these, 3 are living, James Renick, Phoebe A., and Louisa C. much to their credit be it remembered that Mrs. Pritchard's parents desired their children to be well educated and sent their daughter to the Covington schools and to Ivy Cliff near Warm Springs, where Miss Maria Richards accomplished so much good. Her marriage to Col. Pritchard occurred February 5, 1856, at the Alleghany home near Covington, West Virginia. James M. Price is believed to have officiated. After their marriage the parties settled at Columbia Furnace, Shenandoah County, Va., where they lived for 4 years, when Col. Pritchard sold his interest in the Columbia Furnace and located at Powell's Fort in the same County and built a furnace there. Very soon after operations began at Powell's Fort furnace, the late war began and the property was raided by the Federals and the buildings burnt, whereupon the family came back to the old Alleghany home, and remained there until peace was declared. When Col. Pritchard took his family to Frederick County, the old Pritchard home, and remained there about 2 years. The prospects of making a living were so discouraging that the Col. returned to Bath, lived 2 or 3 years the Dean farm about 5 miles west of the Warm Springs, and then in 1873 came to Dunmore.

She became a member of the Baptist Presbyterian Church at Dunmore June 20, 1874. The Church for the time being, not having a pastor, the Rev. M. D. Duxley, of Academy, was present, preached and moderated the session upon that memorable occasion.

Some years later Col. Pritchard became a member of the same Church whose much lamented death was a testimonial more appropriate.

death occurred June 1, 1899.

They were the parents of 11 children born in the following order: Charles Edward, James Franklin, Mary Susan, Robert Martin, Margaret Elizabeth, John William, Anna Virginia, Ella, Cornelia Frances, Stephen Archibald, Samuel Reece, and Frederic Carter. 2 of the daughters, Mary & Margaret & 2 of the sons, Robert & Stephen are dead. The survivors are all residents of Dunmore and vicinity.

The writer of this memorial tribute cherishes special affection for her memory as that of a friend when friends were needed. Yet he deems it expedient to specify the reason therefor. During the 25 years of our acquaintance, the writer has been reminded of so much that appears in the character of Mrs. Pritchard. Among the traits of a model woman that chapter says "she openeth her mouth with wisdom and on her tongue is the law of kindness; she looketh well to the ways of her household and eateth not the bread of idleness. favour is deceitful and beauty is vain but a woman that feareth the Lord she shall be praised." Proverbs 31: 25-31.

This memorial tribute will be closed by extracts from a letter written by one of her most attached friends ever since her coming to Dunmore. a testimonial more appropriate is rarely attainable for a purpose such as the one in view:

"It was Christmas morning, I had gone to Church with my niece and while they were in Sabbath school I went to spend the hour with my old friend. As always she had a welcome for me. She sat by an open fire holding on her lap a little grand-daughter, in reply to my inquiry she said she was as well as usual. She has always been a frail looking woman and after suffering many attacks of illness, she of course grew more fragile; but this morning I thought she looked as well as usual, but later, after several of the absent members of her family had come in and she ^{had} greeted them in her gentle kindly way I noticed she grew very quiet; a tiny crimson spot burned on each cheek and she sat looking in the fire seemingly unconscious of the chatter around her till I arose to bid her goodbye. That evening she seemed to grow so weak she had to be almost carried to her bed, requiring repeated doses of a stimulant to keep up the heart action. She seemed to grow steadily weaker and in spite of the tenderest care of her children and the most careful efforts of her physician, she quietly "fell on sleep" Wednesday afternoon, December 28, 1910. She was conscious until the end whilst she left no testimony at the last.

there is no one who can doubt her entrance into the heavenly home. She had lived the life of one who followed Christ, accepting Him as her Savior, and there was no need of words to assure us that ~~all~~ was well in the end. She was faithful, consciously so, to every duty in life, as wife, mother, neighbor and friend; charitable toward the faults of others, she was loved by all who knew her. I have never heard anyone speak an unkind word of her. She was a Christian in the truest sense of the name."

The Charleston Gazette

Knox - Bafter

The home of Mrs. Margaret Bafter at onoto, the bride's mother was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday of last week. At 2 o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor to the strain of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Frank Bafter. The music continued softly throughout the ceremony. They were received at the bridal arch by the Rev. H. H. Orr of Marlinton, the bride's pastor and with the simple ring ceremony, Mr. Charles Knox of Canneltown, W. Va and Miss Edith Bafter were pronounced husband and wife. The room was beautifully decorated with both cut flowers and plants.

The following guests were present: Mr and Mrs. E. C. Smith of Spruce, Mrs. Faith Bafter of Cass, Mr and Mrs. F. C. Pritchard of Dunmore, Mr and Mrs. A. O. Bafter of Marlinton, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. C. Auldridge, Mr + Mrs. Frank Bafter, Glenn, Dameron and Goldie Barlow, John Simmons, Clay Tallman, Glenna, Margaret and Gray McLaughlin, Lillie and Beatrice Sharp and Goldie Jordan.

after a brief trip to the home of the groom at Fairmont the young couple will be found in their newly furnished home in Canneltown where the groom is employed as a mining engineer.

Mrs. Rachel Swink died at her home near Cass, April 14, 1925. Her age was 68.

Pocahontas Times 4/30/1925

Mrs. Rachel Swink

On April 14, 1925, Mrs. Rachel Swink, a well known resident of the Wanless community, near Cass, passed to her reward.
Her maiden name was Cassell. She spent her entire life in that community. At the time of her death she lacked one month of being 68 years of age.

On October 5, 1876 she was united in marriage to Z. J. Swink by Rev. H. M. Strickler. Two sons, Charles L. and Price L. survive her. One child died in infancy.
She had six sisters, four of whom survive her and one brother who died a year ago.

Mrs. Swink was converted in 1882, during the ministry of Rev. L. Fox and united with the Greenbank M. E. Church South. In 1888 when a church was organized at Wanless under the ministry of Rev. W. H. Bellenger she transferred her membership to that church.

She lived a consecrated Christian life. She was always at the service of her church, day or night, summer or winter as long as her health permitted. During almost all her Christian life she was a Sunday School teacher. Her home was the preacher's home. For many years she had been a subscriber to the Baltimore Southern Methodist. She loved her Bible and read it through several times. She delighted in the companionship of God's people. When the Christian of the community gathered at her home for worship when she could no longer attend church she would give expression to her joy in shouts of praise.

In the autumn of 1922 she was paralyzed. Since then she had been practically helpless, she could not even change her position in bed without assistance. During her illness of two and one half years her son Charles and his wife cared for her day and night with a devotion that was most beautiful and praiseworthy. With the exception of one day Charles had not been out of her presence over four hours at a time.

Mrs. Swink had an attack of flu about two weeks before her death from which she could not rally. Her death was sudden.

The funeral service was conducted at the Wanless Church by Rev. L. E. Shires assisted by Rev. Fred Gray on April 16 after which she was laid to rest in the Wanless Cemetery to await the resurrection.

She was the daughter of the late Preston C. and Margaret R. Beverage Erwin, born April 15, 1882, at Pine Grove in Pocahontas County, one of ten children, and the ninth girl. She and the Rev. Sutton were married November 7, 1900, at Green Bank by a cousin, the late Rev. C. C. Arbogast, and they observed Their Golden Wedding Anniversary in November, 1950, while residing in Buckhannon.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church and the Women's Society of Buckhannon and the retired ministers' wives of the West Virginia Conference.

Preceding her in death besides her husband, were three sons, Merrill W., Lawrence E. and Charles R. Sutton, two grandchildren and one great grandchild.

She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Clayton (Ruth) Nichols, of St. Albans; one son, the Rev. Paul E. Sutton, of Sandusky, Michigan; seven grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday morning in the Casdorph and Curry Funeral Chapel at St. Albans by the Rev. Ray W. Wilson, with burial in the Spring Hill Cemetery in Charleston.

The Pocahontas Times

William Wallace Sutton

The Rev. William Wallace Sutton, 84, died in his sleep at his home in Buckhannon, Monday night, September 2, 1963.

He was a native of Green Bank, Pocahontas County, a member of the First Methodist Church at Buckhannon. He was a Methodist Minister for 40 years. He had lived in Buckhannon for 15 years following his retirement from the ministry.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Sadie Florence Ervin Sutton; two sons, Charles R. Sutton, of Charleston, and the Rev. Paul E. Sutton, of Flint, Michigan; one daughter, Mrs. Ruth Nicholas, of St. Albans; eight grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday morning in the First Methodist Church in Buckhannon by Dr. John Hanigan, ^{the Rev. F. Rossing Smith and} the Rev. Ronald McCauley. Burial was in the Spring Hill Cemetery at Charleston.

The Pocahontas Times

He married Sadie F. Ervin, daughter of Preston C. Ervin and wife, Margaret Ervin on November 7, 1900.

Lawrence Ervin Sutton

Sgt. Lawrence Ervin Sutton U.S.M.C.R. was killed in action May 16, 1945, in the battle for Okinawa.

Sgt. Sutton received his early education in the public schools in West Virginia, graduating from the Lindsay Institute, Wheeling, in the class of 1927. He attended West Virginia Wesleyan, Buckhannon, one year.

He entered the Marine Corps in 1929. Served various posts including Parris Island, Quantico and aboard the U.S.S. destroyer Phillips, before entering the detachment at South Charleston, W. Va., 1932. He received his discharge in 1932 and was employed at Carbide and Carbon Chemical Corps, of South Charleston prior to his retirement in 1942. He served on Recruiting Duty in Charleston and Clarksburg and in 1944 went to Camp Lejeune, N.C. for advanced training in Machine Gunnery School. After completion of the course he was an instructor in Gunnery. In January 1945 he went overseas with the Sixth Marine Division.

Sgt. Sutton was the son of Rev. and Mrs. W.W. Sutton of Middlebourne, West Virginia.

Surviving besides his parents are his wife, Betty, and three daughters, Paula, Florence and Bethy Belle, and three brothers, Daniel, Jack and Paul and sister Ruth.

Letter

Mr. Mcneel:

I will be moving to Melrose, Massachusetts, in the early spring. I am not going to be able to take all the genealogy I have been working on in Pocahontas County since 1957.

James Wooddell of Green Bank, is buying everything I have and will continue to work on it, and some of my books that he has will go to the Green Bank Library in memory of my late husband.

We came to Pocahontas every year for two weeks and spent a lot of it doing research at the court house and in cemeteries copying grave stones and visiting relatives of Paul's.

I made many friends with those who were interested in what I was doing. I will miss working on the county but am glad someone is interested in going on with my work.

Dorothy M. Sutton (Mrs. Paul)

Paul E. Sutton was youngest son of Rev. William Wallace & Sadie Florence Ervin Sutton both of whom were born and reared in Pocahontas Co

It is our intention to put all my finding into print when completed at a minimal fee.

She is getting Sutton, Ervine - Ervin & related lines - complete names including middle & maiden names, complete dates & places of birth, marriage, death & burial. Naming the Cemetery & place where it is located, also include any children or infants who may have died in infancy or young.

Willie Cassell was down from Back alleghany last Saturday. He told me that the loss of sheep from bears from the Cassell farm down through the years, directly and indirectly would run into the thousands of dollars, if there was any way to compute the loss. The direct loss was in sheep actually killed by bears; the indirect loss was in not keeping as many sheep as the farm would graze on account of the risk to run from bears killing them. Not until recent years, once the Jacy brothers have gone into bear hunting as a profession, has it been safe for the Cassells to graze sheep on their lands west of the Back mountain Road. The big Chest wilderness is a bear haven, but in the last few years the Back alleghany people have been able by systematically hunting them down, the sheep killing bears have not had long careers.

Galford - Cassell

In a double-ring ceremony at 2:00 p.m., Sunday, June 20, 1954, in the Green Bank Methodist Church, Miss Charlotte Dare Cassell, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Cassell of Cass, became the bride of Mr. Sam Galford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Galford of Green Bank.

The Rev. Okey Cooper, Jr., pastor, solemnized the marriage before an altar banked with pine and laurel and candelabra in the presence of family members and friends.

Traditional music was played by Miss Peggy Sheets, who also accompanied Miss Rachel McCutcheon as she sang "Because" and the "Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a waltz-length gown of white lace over satin. Her fingertip veil of illusion was embroidered with seed pearls and trimmed with lace. She carried a white bible on which rested a bouquet of white carnations with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Paul Mullenax of Boyer served her sister as matron of honor, wearing a blue satin gown. Her bridesmaid was of matching material and she carried a bouquet of yellow, pink and blue carnations.

Mr. Berlin Galford of Clarksburg, served as his brother as best man.

The ushers were Kent Galford, Jr., brother of the groom, and Donald Grogg of Green Bank.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cassell wore a Navy blue dress with pink and white accessories, and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Galford, Mother of the groom, wore a dress of light blue with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the basement room of the church. The bridal party greeted the guests informally, a white three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, centered a white covered table. Pink and white rosebuds completed the table decorations.

Mrs. Virginia Ervin cut and served the wedding cake, assisted by Miss Mary Ann Cassell, Mrs. L. W. Hoover of Detroit, Michigan, presided at the punch bowl.

The bride was graduated in 1953 from Green Bank High School where she was a participant in many school activities. For the past year she has been employed in Akron, Ohio.

Mr. Galford was graduated in the same class as his bride and at present is a member of the armed forces. After a short wedding trip, Mr and Mrs. Galford will reside in Alabama where he is stationed.

Annual Golden Horseshoe Day, sponsored by the West Virginia Department of Education, was held May 6 at the State Capitol in Charleston. It honored 221 eighth-grade students from every county in the state.

At least two students from each county and one from the Schools for the Deaf and the Blind in Romney were dubbed Knights and Ladies of the Golden Horseshoe at the all-day ceremony.

Pendleton County was represented by Stephen A. Cassell of Brandywine Elementary School and Jody W. Whiteside of Franklin Elementary School.

The students have scored the highest on a test about West Virginia prepared by the State Department of Education. The two highest scorers in each county were chosen, while the remaining 110 students were the other highest scorers in the state, prorated by county according to the county's ratio to the number of eighth-grade students in the state.

Birthday Party

Quite a novel and delightful affair in the way of a birthday party was given by Mrs. (Charles) Cassell in honor of her daughter, Miss Edna Cassell last Thursday evening, March 21st (1907) at 104 Bozeman Ave., South, Bozeman, Montana. There were many beautiful presents received. They were entertained by games suitable for the occasion, also music which was rendered by Mrs. Grace Martin assisted by Miss Cassell. Mr. & Mrs. Chas. E. Knodle led the merry crowd to the dining room after supper ice cream, cakes, fruits, and other good things were served. The party then repaired to the parlor where prizes were awarded the winners in the archery contest, the object being to pierce the heart with the arrow. Mr. Leroy Knodle winning the first prize a beautiful box of choice candy. Miss Edna Knodle won the consolation prize. The guests, after wishing Mrs. Cassell many happy returns of the evening bade her good night.

April 2, 1908 Peabody Times

Mrs. Nancy Cassell, aged 93 yrs, died at her home in Woodstock, Illinois. She was a daughter of William Sharp of Verdant Valley and was one of 13 children, only one of whom survives, Mrs Martha Dilley. Her husband was Jacob Cassell who died 10 or 12 years since. They migrated to the west many years since and accumulated a large fortune. They had no children and it is generally understood that the will of Mr.
Cassell provides that at the death of his wife his estate shall be divided equally between the Cassell and Sharp families.

payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our, and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly & severally by these presents, sealed with our seals and dated this 2nd day of July 1836 whereas, a marriage is suddenly intended to be had and solemnized between

John Castle and Sally Curry Now the condition of the above obligation is such that if there be no lawful cause, or just impediment to obstruct the said marriage, then the above obligation to be void, else to remain in full force and virtue.

James Cassell, of Illinois, died at the home of his cousin, William Cassell on Back alleyway, on Saturday, March 25, 1911, of some cancerous affection, aged 71 years. The deceased was a son of John and Sallie Cury Cassell, and was born in Pocahontas County, August 4, 1840. At the age of 7 years his parents moved west to what is now Illinois and afterward to Iowa. Upon his marriage to Sallie Orr he moved to Missouri, and there raised his family and lived until the death of his wife in 1893, when he moved back to his old home in Illinois. In 1908 he married Mariam Scott, who survives him. In his twenty eighth year Mr. Cassell became a professor of religion and lived the life of a Christian, and bore with resignation his long, painful illness.
